In this cause it appearing from affidavit on file that the defendants, John E. Huntsberger, complainant's solicitor, it is ordered that the said defendants, John E. Barnard and Smiller Barnard Smiller Barna Prairie fires have been abundant during the dry weather, and many a poor farmer has lost his hay, crops of all kinds, barns and houses. They burn with fearful rapidity. No running horse can out-speed them. As that the said defendants, John E. Barnard and Emiline Barnard, cause their appearance to be entered herein within four months from the date of this order; and in case of their appearance that they cause their answer to the complainant's bill of complaint to be filed and a copy thereof to be served on its complainant's solicitor within twenty days after service on them of a copy of said bill and notice of this order; and in default thereof said bill will be taken as confessed by said non-resident defendants. And it is further ordered that within twenty days the complainant cause a notice of this order to be published in the TRUE NORTHERINER, a newspaper permed, published and circulating in said county, an example, a fire started Saturday near Millbrook, in Graham county, and burned to Logan, in Phillips county, in a few hours. It covered a strip thirty-five miles long and twenty-five miles wide. Houses, barns, cattle, horses, almost everything was swept away before it. A traveling man told me he saw three children burned to death—a charred mass of flesh and bones. The oldest printed, published and circulating in said county, and that said publication be continued therein at least once in each week for six weeks in succession, or that of these was nine years old. We had a stormy fight here. A few ladies met at the Methodist church and nominated one ticket; (think of a caucus in a church! Does it not seem proceedings at law or in equity having been insti-tated to recover the amount now due nor any part strange?). A union caucus nominated a citizens' ticket and the knights of labor, who try to care for the welfare of the public out here, put up a ticket of their own. Here were three tickets. If there are two things I miss more than others out here, they are the trees and birds. It is almost painful sometimes, this lack of feathered songsters. vacancy at once. We do not, however, always want for pared to render his final account as such administrator and files the same.

Thereupon it is ordered, that Monday the 23d day of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for examining and allowing such account, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be holded at the probate office in the village of Paw Paw, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.
